

The position of adverbs – Exercises I

Adverbs of frequency

Remember:

Adverbs of frequency (one word)

usually stand BEFORE the full verb
but AFTER a form of to be.

If the adverbs consist of more than one word
you put them at the BEGINNING or at the END of the sentence.

Fill in the adverbs.

Mr. Goodwill and Winston, the sausage dog

Mr. Goodwill and his dog Winston live together in a terraced house. They are very good friends and like to be together. So neither Mr. Goodwill nor Winston is lonely (ever). They almost spend their time together (always): First, they go to school together (on certain¹ weekdays). Second, they are together at their house, in their garden or go for long walks together.

..... Mr. Goodwill and Winston go to school together (from Monday to Friday). When they are at school, Winston helps Mr. Goodwill (usually).

But Winston comes to school with Mr. Goodwill (never; on Wednesdays), because he goes to dog school (on Wednesdays).

It is Mrs. Ironlady who takes Winston and her dog Maggie there (always). the two dogs are together in form 3 (this year). There Winston learns new tricks he absolutely loves (usually). These tricks can be difficult, so he gets homework (sometimes).

¹ on certain weekdays: an bestimmten Werktagen

He does this homework
(always; after lunch break). Then he plays
..... with a ball in the garden (normally). He also ..... does some extra exercises he learns at his dog's school (sometimes).

..... Mr. Goodwill goes out
..... (in the evenings; sometimes). He goes ..... to the pub and meets a friend (usually).
..... he goes to his favourite pub "Ye Olde Cheese"
..... (every Friday). There he takes
..... part in the famous pub quiz (always). Good for Winston: Mr.
Goodwill is not home late (often).

But when he arrives home, Winston comes to Mr.
Goodwill and sniffles curiously (always). And then both of them are very happy to be together again!
