

Listening Comprehension: Dating (Lösungsvorschlag)

Please tick "true" or "false".	TRUE	FALSE
Being on a date with someone means that person is your official partner.		x

Please fill the gap.

Dating is just about spending time together.

List at least two things you might typically do on these types of dates:

Casual date: skating, hammocking, cinema, driving around

romantic/official date: restaurant, theatre

Please tick "true" or "false".	TRUE	FALSE
Group dates work on an even girl/boy ratio.	x

Please tick "true" or "false".	TRUE	FALSE
People on a group date might share a car.	x

Please fill the gap.

Many teenagers have a curfew, which means that they have to be home at a certain point of time.

Please tick "true" or "false".	TRUE	FALSE
On a first date with a girl, the boy is expected to have a chat with the girl's parents first.	x

There are certain expectations as to how the boy on a date should behave. Tick three things a boy is expected to do.

- buy flowers for the girl
- decide where to go
- pay for everything
- plan the whole date
- rent a limo

---

Please tick the one correct answer: Going on a date with someone means ...

- ...about the same in both countries
- ...more in the US than it does in Germany
- ...much more in Germany than it does in the US.

Please tick "true" or "false".	TRUE	FALSE
It could become a problem if going on a date with someone doesn't turn into a deeper relationship.		x

Please fill the gap.

If you don't date people will consider you strange or awkward.