

Test your 'criminal' vocabulary

1. An investigator's job is to question people.
2. When a criminal pulls the trigger, the bullet is fired.
3. An integral element of crime fiction, which often makes the reader uncertain of about what is to happen, is the creation of suspense by the author.
4. An investigator gathers evidence to convict the murderer.
5. If you feel remorse, you have a bad conscience.
6. If you feel responsible for a misdeed, you are not free of guilt.
7. Connect the corresponding synonyms:
 - a memory hook – a mnemonic
 - murder – homicide
 - to ridicule – to make fun of
 - secluded – remote
 - ties – bonds
 - insulting – slighting
 - humiliation – mortification
 - red herring – diversionary tactic
 - a crime – an assault
 - to cast out – to ostracise
8. Connect the corresponding antonyms:
 - a murderer – a victim
 - friendship – rivalry
 - self-conscious – self-confident
 - to murder – to fall victim to
 - an innocent – a suspect
 - an investigator – a perpetrator
 - to ostracise – to include
 - to evoke – to suppress

9. Fill in table with words from the same word family:

offence	desperation	relation
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• an offender• to offend• offensive• offended• offensiveness	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• desperate• to despair• despairing• in despair• despair	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• relatedness• to relate• relative• relationship• reliant