

Listening Comprehension Test: Rabina Khan about multiculturalism

BBC Radio 4 'Four Thought', 17 October 2012

- In multiple choice tasks, tick the single box that comes closest to what you understand. The answer options are given in alphabetical order.
- In half-closed questions the number of dashes (-) indicates how many points you are expected to find.

Names mentioned in the text:

- Golliwog: cartoon image of a black person (considered racist now)
- Oswald Mosley: leader of a British Nazi organisation in the 1930s ("black-shirts")
- English Defence League: populist, right-winged and anti-Muslim group
- Danny Boyle: British film director who created the famous opening ceremony of the 2012 Olympics in London
- Mohamed "Mo" Farah: British sportsman who won gold in the 5,000m and 10,000m races

0.	Example: This programme is from	<input type="checkbox"/> BBC Learning. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> BBC Radio 4. <input type="checkbox"/> BBC World. <input type="checkbox"/> the BBC World Service.
1.	Rabina Khan's father considered Britain to be...	<input type="checkbox"/> a dangerous place. <input type="checkbox"/> a place for good jobs. <input type="checkbox"/> only a temporary place of residence. <input type="checkbox"/> the place where he felt at home.
2.	The speaker recalls an episode from school in which a teacher...	<input type="checkbox"/> complained about Rabina's skin colour. <input type="checkbox"/> only kept going on about skin colours. <input type="checkbox"/> only talked to Rabina's mother. <input type="checkbox"/> thought she should become a milkman.
3.	After 9/11, the British public has increasingly grouped some Asian immigrants by their...	<input type="checkbox"/> country of origin. <input type="checkbox"/> Muslim faith. <input type="checkbox"/> native languages. <input type="checkbox"/> rough geographical origin.

4.	Rabina Khan criticizes the fact that Muslim women wearing headscarves are mainly seen as...	<input type="checkbox"/>	obedient to their husbands.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	oppressed by their husbands.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	religious fundamentalists.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	troublemakers.
5.	Rabina Khan's daughters and herself...	<input type="checkbox"/>	all wear headscarves.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	don't wear headscarves.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	have different attitudes towards headscarves.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	see headscarves as instruments of oppression.
6.	Rabina Khan agrees with the Prime Minister's recent criticism of multiculturalism.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
7.	As a child, Khan found it hard to see herself in the books and toys available to British children at the time.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
8.	The teacher who suggested Khan's classmates should find out more about her was...	<input type="checkbox"/>	a Muslim, too.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	a social outcast.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	from Bangladesh.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	from Wales.
9.	Growing up with different cultures and ethnicities gave Rabina Khan a feeling of...	<input type="checkbox"/>	focus on her own culture.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	goodwill and understanding.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	ignorance about her own identity.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	isolation and conflict.
10.	A 2010 survey showed that first-generation immigrants who tend to marry within their own community also...	<input type="checkbox"/>	integrate with neighbours and workmates.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	listen to radical preachers.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	make sure their children follow their example.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	stay away from "white" parts of their hometowns.

11.	Rabina Khan does not approve of arranged marriages.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
12.	Khan's parents tried to teach their children values like...	— — —
13.	While the speaker admits that a high number of British Muslims would like to see sharia law implemented in British law, she says there is also a high number of whites who...	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	have lost their faith in British laws. think British laws are too soft. want foreigners to be excluded. want sharia law, too.
14.	Khan mentions the example of a multicultural group of residents of Tower Hamlets, which was made up of...	— — —
15.	These Tower Hamlet residents...	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	cheered on English Defence League demonstrators. joined an English Defence League demonstration. made English Defence League demonstrators look harmless. stopped an English Defence League demonstration.
16.	Khan believes that if anything, multiculturalism promotes....	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	a feeling of Britishness. increased radicalism. more racism. polarization.
17.	Khan claims that more Muslims feel proud to be British citizens than other people.	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>	true false

18.	Rabina Khan believes that Danny Boyle's Olympic opening ceremony....	<input type="checkbox"/>	gave a false impression of Britain.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	pretended that Britain is tolerant.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	reflected modern Britain.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	was a waste of money.
19.	She believes it is not enough to describe yourself in terms of one feature only, e.g. white or Muslim.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
20.	Rabina Khan says that appreciating multiculturalism in Britain has led to...	<input type="checkbox"/>	a lack of national identity.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	a more widespread feeling of Britishness.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	more confusion about British identity.
		<input type="checkbox"/>	more relaxed attitudes towards Britishness.
21.	Attempts to restrict cultural differences, Khan says, will result in more commitment to national identity.	<input type="checkbox"/>	true
		<input type="checkbox"/>	false
22.	According to Rabina Khan's father, the most important part of people's identity is...	—