

Asking the Way

Cut out the parts of the dialogue and arrange them in the correct order!

OK, let's see..... we're next to the river now, so cross the bridge, and on the other side of the river walk straight on to the roundabout. And there at the roundabout, turn right into King William Street. It isn't far. Actually, you can see the roundabout from here.

Oh yes please! I'm looking for the station car park.

Perfect. Well, thank you so much for your help! This was very kind of you.

Yes, it is. You just have to walk down Station Road and the car park is on your left, just in front of the station building.

You're welcome. Bye!

Oh yes, there it is. And from the roundabout? How do I go on from there?

Bye, and thanks again!

In King William Street, walk past the museum and keep left at the junction. That's Station Road.

Hello. You're looking lost.... Can I help you?

Station Road, OK. Is that where the car park is?
