

Asking the Way Dialogue: Solutions

Hello. You're looking lost.... Can I help you?

Oh yes please! I'm looking for the station car park.

OK, let's see..... we're next to the river now, so cross the bridge, and on the other side of the river walk straight on to the roundabout. And there at the roundabout, turn right into King William Street. It isn't far. Actually, you can see the roundabout from here.

Oh yes, there it is. And from the roundabout? How do I go on from there?

In King William Street, walk past the museum and keep left at the junction. That's Station Road.

Station Road, OK. Is that where the car park is?

Yes, it is. You just have to walk down Station Road and the car park is on your left, just in front of the station building.

Perfect. Well, thank you so much for your help! This was very kind of you.

You're welcome. Bye!

Bye, and thanks again!
